MOST REV. EDWARD F. HOBAN
S.T.D., PH.D., LL.D.

O GOD, the Shepherd and Ruler of all the faithful, look propitiously upon Thy servant Edward whom Thou hast been pleased to appoint pastor over Thy Church of Cleveland. Grant, we beseech Thee, that both by word and example he may edify those over whom he is placed, and, together with the flock committed to his care, may attain unto life everlasting.

President's Message

VERY REV. HUGH E. DUNN, S.J.
A.M., PH.D.
PRESIDENT

Through the years to come you will treasure your 1958 Carillon. It will be your mine of memories about the classmates and teachers, the incidents and events, the laughs and labors that were part of your educational experience at John Carroll University. It will also, I trust, help you to keep in mind what you have learned here.

Your liberal education means that you have increased your skill in using the tools of learning; you know how to learn now and in the future. You have attained a basic understanding of the main issues in the important fields of knowledge. You have been brought face to face with a moral ideal of complete living. You have been challenged to make your knowledge issue into good actions, which characterize the good man, in your own personal and social situation. You know that it is your personal responsibility to meet a standard of excellence in all that you do in the years ahead.

The 1958 Carillon will remind you of your John Carroll education, and it will, I know, reassure you that our prayers for your success in total living are always with you.

In lauding the historian and his art Cicero once wrote, "If no use is made of the labors of past ages, the world must always remain in the infancy of knowledge." This volume which chronicles a year of John Carroll's history is dedicated with special appropriateness to the University's most eminent historian, Donald P. Gavin, Associate Professor of History and Director of the Department.

As a practicing professor and as a professional historian it has been his academic heritage to help interpret the labors of the past and to bring human knowledge to a rich, Christian maturity. When classes convene next September Professor Gavin will begin his 25th year as a member of the John Carroll faculty.

A Carroll alumnus, he has for a quarter of a century bestowed upon his students a recognition and appreciative comprehension of the historian's ideals of exactness, sincerity, impartiality, and insistence on the truth—ideals which, by his own example of integrity, industry, and inspiring loyalty, he has encouraged these students to transfer to their own personal lives.

During his 12-year tenure as department director he has continually sought to develop in his students a philosophy of history which looks to the past in order to understand the present, one which explains events by their human causes, while discerning in them the influence of Providence.

Instrumental in curricular revisions designed to improve and intensify the entire social science program, he inaugurated and administers an integrated advisory system for students contemplating careers in teaching, law, or public service; and he has staffed the department with men of demonstrated scholarship and professional promise.

His memberships in learned societies are too numerous to detail; his monographs are too varied to list. In All Things Charity, his history of the Sisters of Charity in Cleveland, is at once a monument to the heroic service of the nuns and a tribute to the academic adeptness of the author.

We members of the Carillon staff extend to Professor Gavin our congratulations on his forthcoming anniversary, and we offer him our dedication in gratitude for his.

Dedication

Alpha Sigma Nu

Members of Alpha Sigma Nu:
W. Gschwend, S. Glod, G. Porter, R. Nix, J. McLoughlin, P. Raymond.

Alpha Sigma Nu, National Jesuit honorary fraternity, each year recognizes a select group of students who have distinguished themselves in scholarship, loyalty, and service to John Carroll University.

The officers were Paul Raymond, president; Bill Gschwend, vice-president; and Gerry Porter, secretary-treasurer. The Rev. Joseph G. Milunas, S.J., was moderator.

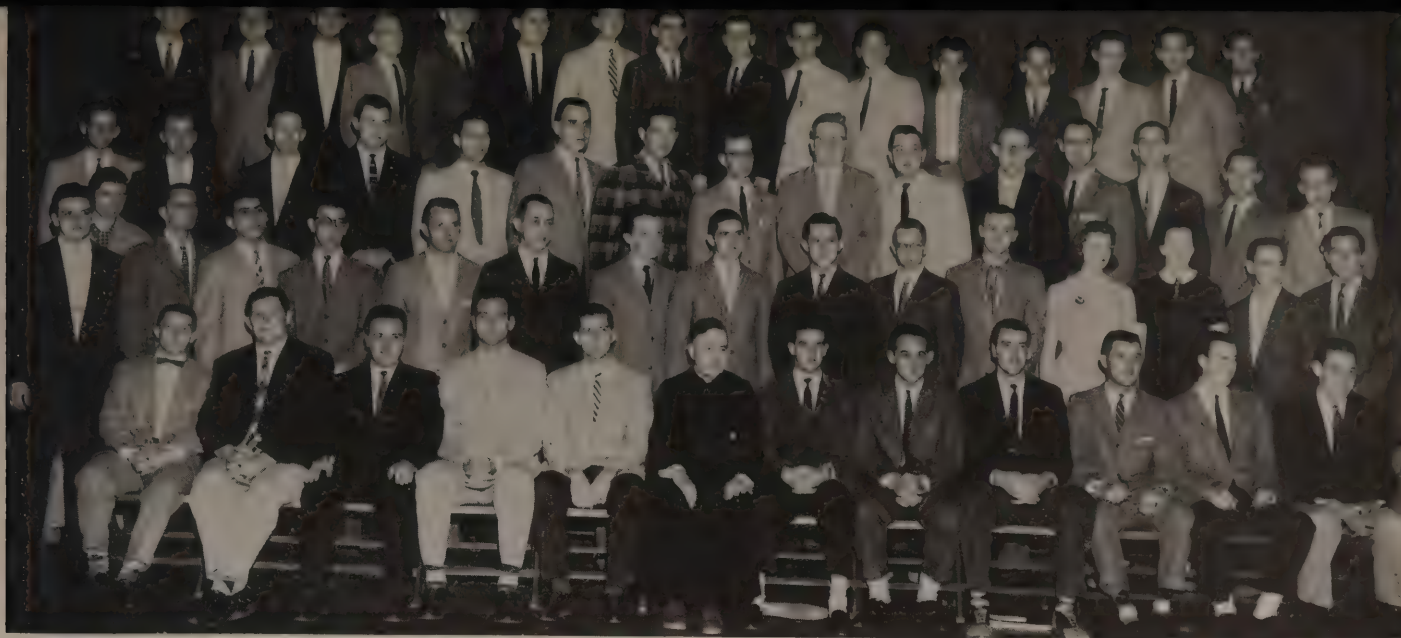

Who's Who

Eighteen members of John Carroll's senior class of "58" were nominated to membership in "Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges." Selected by campus organizations on the basis of academic achievement, loyalty, and participation in University affairs, the outstanding seniors were:

William Anderson	Robert Maynard
John Briatta	John McLaughlin
John Callinan	Robert Mellert
Patrick Doherty	Robert Nix
John Fusciello	John Pellegrine
Stanley Glod	Gerald Porter

The Carroll Union

John Carroll's student government body, the Carroll Union, composed of representatives from every campus organization, experienced a successful year in co-ordinating student activities and in solving campus problems.

Patrick Doherty distinguished himself as president of the Union. He was assisted by Vice-President J. Peter Fegen, Secretary Timothy Crotty, and Treasurer Gary Furin. The Rev. William J. Murphy, S.J., was moderator.

NFCCS

The National Federation of Catholic College Students represents more than 150 Catholic colleges and universities in the nation. The group's objective is the promotion of Catholic interests in education.

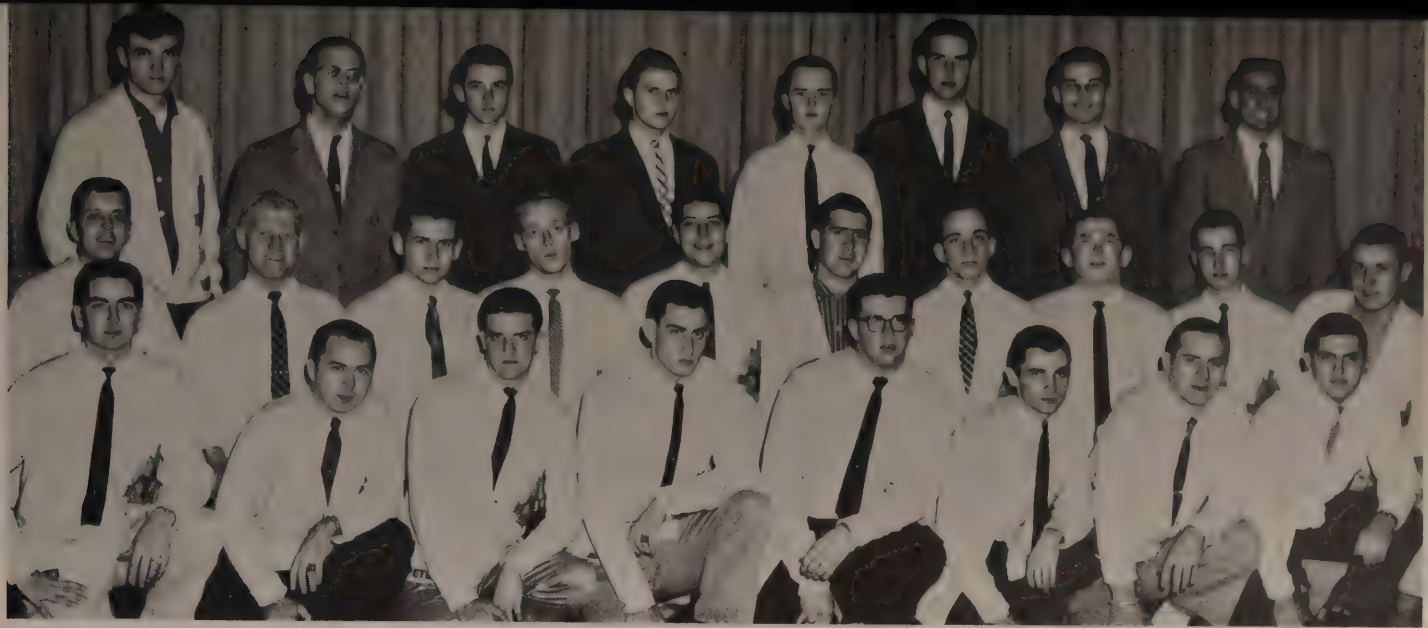

Paul Jankowski was senior delegate to the federation, while Gerald Rachfal served as campus chairman of Social Service. The Rev. William J. Murphy, S.J., was moderator.

National Student Association

John Carroll University holds a charter membership in the National Student Association, a nationwide organization of 250 colleges and universities. Organized in 1947 to promote the welfare of students, the organization discusses problems common to students through conventions, brochures, and public relations activities.

Iota Chi Upsilon

One of the most volatile groups on Campus, the Booster Club, seeks to stimulate student support of the football and basketball teams through rallies, caravans, and half-time shows.

Homecoming, the social highlight of the football season, was a successful combination of pre-game rally, pre-game parade, and victory dance.

Essentially a service organization, the Boosters are responsible for the colorful, and often whimsical, posters and banners promoting campus events.

Officers for 1957-58 were Bob Martin, president; Dave Ross, vice-president; Phil Cusick, secretary; and Peter Fegen, treasurer.

Homecoming

Sponsored by the Booster Club, Homecoming Holiday was observed the weekend of October 12. Climaxing the celebration was the annual Homecoming Dance, attended by an overflow throng of 800 students, alumni, and their guests. George Duffy and his orchestra provided the dance tempos.

Under the able baton of its director, Mr. Jack T. Hearn, the John Carroll Band served its dual role as University Band and Orchestra.

During the football season the band entertained between halves of the ball games as a marching musical unit.

In March the band performed at a formal concert with the University Glee Club and Barat College Chorus of Lake Forest, Illinois. During the same month the musicians sponsored an All-High School Band Festival in the new Gymnasium.

May 3d and 4th the band journeyed to Erie and Pittsburgh. Concerts were given for the students of Villa Marie and Mount Mercy Colleges.

Officers were: Larry Flandera, president; Paul Mong, vice-president; Bob Malecek, secretary.

Pi Delta Epsilon

John Carroll's chapter of the national honorary Journalism fraternity, Pi Delta Epsilon, acted as coordinator for the three student publications, the Carroll News, the Carillon, and the Carroll Quarterly.

Jim Megeath was president. Julius Sabo served as vice-president, and Jerry Grant filled the office of secretary-treasurer. Mr. Robert Hall moderated.

The editors of the Quarterly display a variety of reactions to Fr. Hughes' comments on THE ORGANIZATION MAN.

Pi Delt members Otto and Mellert prove that a good writer must first read widely.

Carroll Quarterly

Streamlined in type and format and featuring a gain in size and quality, the Carroll Quarterly provided the student body with an outlet for their literary talents.

Debating Society

The Carroll Debate Team added four trophies to their collection in a very successful season. The orators won first place in both the Ohio Sweepstakes and the Wooster Tournament.

Climax of the Spring season was a debate with two students from the University of Glasgow on the question of the right to work.

Paul Raymond was president; Bob Smith, vice-president; Dan Carney, secretary; and Jim Witting, treasurer. Dr. Austin Freeley was moderator.

Readying a plan of verbal attack are Joe Miller, Bob Mellert and Paul Jankowski.

The Junior Dance was held on January 10 in the main ballroom of the Hotel Cleveland. Warren Covington and his Commanders provided the music for the Carroll men and their dates who crowded the dance floor and two adjoining parlors.

Wide smiles mirror happy times.

Dance

The queen contest was a popular feature of this year's dance. Last minute judging made it possible for dorm students to enter out-of-town contestants. Miss Lynne Snyder, accompanied by junior Dale Brown, reigned as queen.

Hard work on the part of the dance committee insured a good time and a fine turn out from all classes. George Lutjen headed the dance committee.

Junior Prom Queen Lynne Snyder is congratulated by last year's Queen, Miss Jeanine Rosinia, as George Lutjen says a few words to the audience.

Ruben Dario promoted a number of outstanding lectures and Spanish-American films. This active organization also initiated a mission to teach catechism to Puerto Rican children.

The annual Mardi Gras dance sponsored jointly by the Spanish Club, Italian Club, and French Club was the usual pre-Lenten social success.

This year's president, Leonard Slaughter, was ably assisted by Stanley Ulchaker, vice-president; James Shannon, secretary-treasurer; and Donald Palmer, officer-at-large. Mr. Luiz Soto-Ruiz was moderator.

Last minute Mardi Gras plans find the officers of the Spanish Club in a stairway confab.

French Club

This year the French Club pointed to student use of more audio-visual aids as one of its more progressive achievements. Les Dialogues also sponsored a number of lectures and movies, including one entitled "God Needs Men".

The French Club, in co-operation with the Spanish Club and the Italian Club, produced the Mardi Gras.

The organization was under the able leadership of President John Duffy, Vice-President Matthew Mahon, Secretary Jerald Rachfal, and Treasurer John McBride. The moderator was Mr. Lucien A. Aube.

Polish-American Club

Under the leadership of John Szuch, president, and Thomas Mszanowski, vice-president, the Polish Club attempted to acquaint its members with facets of Polish history and culture and their effect on American society.

These aims were achieved through film screenings of short subjects concerning Polish history, discussions at group meetings, and displays in the University library.

ROW 1: J. Szuch, J. Radigan, P. Golash
 ROW 2: R. Kotera, J. Rachfal, R. Kolodziej.

 ROW 3: R. McFaul, S. Buzzano, A. Trentino, J. Belmonte, A. Rossi, E. Melotti.

Organized to promote an appreciation of Italian culture, the Italian Club has made valuable contributions to University activities by devoting its meetings to a study of Italian history and language. In addition, the members co-sponsored the annual Mardi Gras dance in conjunction with the other language clubs.

Mr. James J. Peirola acted as moderator. Salvatore Lato and W. John Briatta filled the posts of president and vice-president.

Lambda Iota Tau

Alpha Phi, the Carroll chapter of Lambda Iota Tau, experienced its second year at the University. The members of the frat chose serious literary topics as the subject for their papers. Under the supervision of this organization the Greek classic Oedipus Rex was shown to the student body. A panel discussion on the works of Mauriac was held in the spring.

Jerry Kramer was president and Pat Durkin acted as secretary-treasurer.

Augustan Society

To stimulate interest in the classics and to develop an appreciation of them by offering opportunities for special research in classical literature, history, and archeology, is the aim of the Augustan Society.

The results of such special work were offered to the club in the form of essays, illustrated lectures, recitations, and readings under the leadership of Dr. R. Joseph Schork, moderator, Gerald Malizia, president, and the concentrated efforts of the club members.

Confraternity of Christian Doctrine

CCD members do not confine their activities to JCU's campus. Bringing the teachings of the Catholic Church to Hudson Boys Farm, Warrensville Workhouse, the Detention Home, and Highland View Hospital, they range far afield from Carroll.

Their work of instruction and counseling consumes many after-school and weekend hours.

An important part of the organization's calendar is the yearly membership drive which features a display demonstrating the club's activities. New members undergo a training program which seeks to develop a spiritual motivation for the CCD work.

Bill Gschwend held the office of president and Dennis Fagan filled the vice-president's chair. The Rev. George Kmieck, S.J., served as club moderator.

CCD officers map strategy for their recruiting drive.

Glee Club

Carroll's singing ambassadors visited six states during their November tour, including Indiana, Illinois, and Wisconsin. Highlight of the second semester was the memorable concert with the Barat College Glee Club at Carroll on March 8 and 9.

The fine showing of the Glee Club was achieved through the combined efforts of Mr. Jack Hearn, director of the Glee Club; the Rev. William J. Murphy, S.J., moderator; and club officers John Pellegrine, president; and Jim Richie, vice-president.

Liturgical Choir

CLOCKWISE: Rev. Louis Braatz, S.J., moderator, P. Moon, J. McBride, D. Karnak, T. Mszanowski, T. Otremsky, J. Morrier, (in front) R. Hanusz, R. Tipul, F. Robel, V. Herbert, D. Selhorst, R. Szabo, (seated) D. Gorham.

The beautifully rendered Gregorian Chant heard at student masses was the work of the Liturgical Choir. Another of the aims of the organization was the popularization of liturgical music.

Much of the credit for this group's success is due to the Rev. Louis M. Braatz, S.J., moderator and director. Paul Moon served as president and John McBride was vice-president.

Philosophy Club

On March 7 the Philosophy Club celebrated Aquinas Day. The student body attended Mass in the morning at Gesu Church.

In the afternoon the organization sponsored an all-student convocation featuring Dr. Nemetz, a distinguished philosopher from Ohio State University. Dr. Nemetz centered his address on the application of Thomistic principles to the problems of modern society.

At regular meetings throughout the year philosophical seminars and lectures were conducted. Robert Martin was the club's president, while Dr. Richard J. Blackwell and Mr. W. Edmund Thirlkel served as co-moderators.

Cultural Committee

In its second year on campus, the Carroll Cultural Committee promoted student interest in the classical arts.

Under the direction of Paul Moon, the Committee obtained student rates on tickets to the Cleveland Symphony Orchestra for their Saturday night performances at Severance Hall. The Committee operated under the direction of the Carroll Union.

ROW 1: P. Raymond, E. Rieger, R. Purgert.
ROW 2: N. Hogan, R. Kikta, J. Sabo, J. Logue.

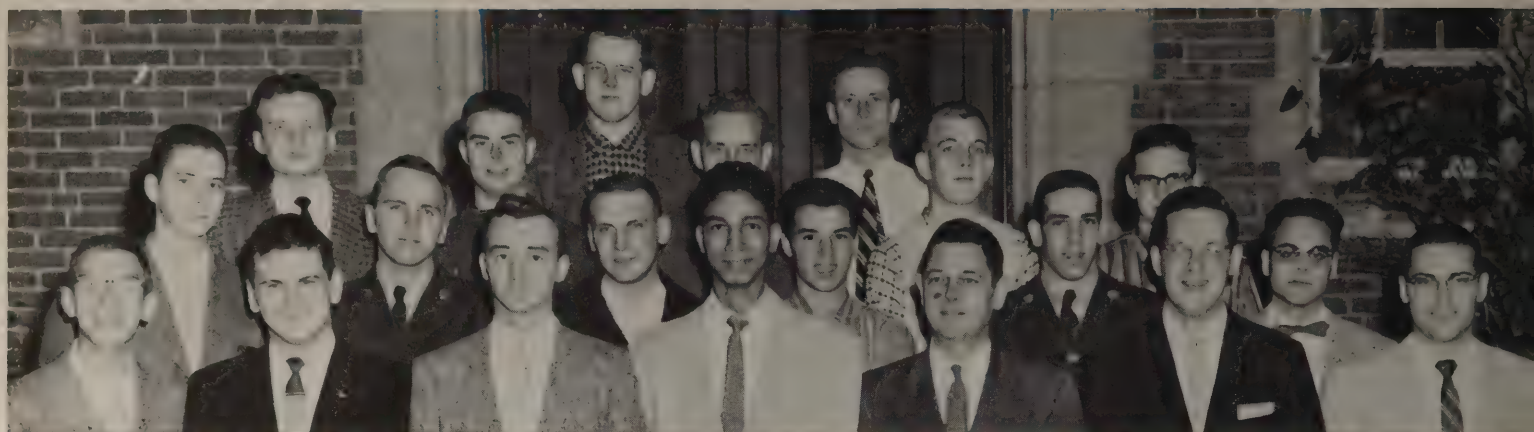

The effect on the West of Khrushchev's coup d'état, the desirability of discontinuing atomic tests, and the impact of the St. Lawrence Seaway precipitated keen debate among the members of the International Relations Club.

The Rev. Howard J. Kerner, S.J., was moderator. Club officers were: Frank Gaffney, president; Paul Raymond, vice-president; Jim Gaertner, secretary; and Bill Norkett, master of the dissident.

Mr. Michael Rodgers, port director of Cleveland, spoke to the student body at a convocation sponsored by the club.

 ROW 4: J. Biaglow, J. Meier.

The American Chemical Society, as a student affiliate of the National American Chemical Society, stimulates and fosters interest in chemistry through its annual awards to the outstanding member and to the outstanding student speaker.

During the 1957-58 school year the ACS sponsored field trips to various industrial concerns and presented several guest speakers.

Three senior members have submitted experimental theses which were presented at the regional ACS meeting at Notre Dame University.

The officers were Del Williams, president; Frank Cook, vice-president; Charles Walker, secretary; and Don Salasek, treasurer. Moderator was Dr. Edmund B. Thomas.

Alpha Psi Omega

R. Manzeila, J. Clifford, J. Hanson, J. Bachhuber, J. Reardon, J. Atten.

The John Carroll Mu Theta Chapter of Alpha Psi Omega, America's largest honorary dramatic fraternity, is one of the oldest Greek-letter societies on campus.

Mu Theta consists of students who have made outstanding contributions to campus dramatics. The cast supports and coordinates campus productions and theatrical presentations in the Cleveland area. The fraternity also presents an award to the senior who has contributed most to dramatics at John Carroll University.

Officers for the year were John Hanson, cast director; John Clifford, cast stage manager; Robert Maynard, cast business manager. The moderator was Mr. Leone J. Marinello.

Institute of Radio Engineers

In attempting to further an interest in the various phases of physics, the Institute of Radio Engineers sponsored a series of lectures and discussions on electronics, communications, and nuclear physics.

The organization, which is affiliated with the National Institute of Radio Engineers, is open to physics majors beginning their sophomore year. The IRE provided social activities which included banquets and hayrides.

The president was Robert L. Profit; Thomas M. McGunigal was vice-president; John C. McNicholas, treasurer; and Frank McCluer, secretary. Mr. William O'Hearn was faculty advisor.

Car Pool Committee

A new organization on campus, the Car Pool Committee, was formed by the Carroll Union to alleviate the campus parking problem. The committee was headed by George Lutjen, who was assisted by Bill Burian, Joe Rini, Chuck Foerstner and Harry Hanna. The Rev. George Kmieck, S.J., acted as moderator for the Committee.

Little Theatre Society

The light, rollicking comedy "Bernardine" and the absorbing psychological drama "Detective Story" afforded ample opportunities for the members of the Little Theatre Society to display their dramatic abilities.

Under the expert direction of Mr. Leone J. Marinello, moderator of the society, Carroll's budding thespians provided the student body with four memorable evenings of entertainment, highlighted by the performances of John Clifford, John McBride, Christopher Bunsey, and Robert Maynard.

To handle the many facets of producing a play, Mr. Marinello relied upon society officers John Clifford, president, John Hanson, vice-president, John McBride, secretary, and Charles West, business manager.

ROW 1: J. Atten, J. Hanson, J. Clifford, R. Buchanan.

 ROW 3: J. Reardon, R. Showiak, J. Roth, C. Bunsey.

Wormy (Chris Bunsey) is told by his girl Cantrick (Linda Domitor) that she is much better for him than worldly Enid Lacey.

Wormy's mother (Carol Armstrong) lectures the boys.

Miss Pat Jarasz gave a stellar performance in the role of Enid Lacey.

"Let's have another chorus of 'Melancholy Baby!'"

One of the more active organizations on campus, the Commerce Club, led off Carroll's social season with its annual Dance. The business club, in cooperation with Alpha Kappa Psi, initiated Dinner Meetings, one of which featured Mr. John Seliskar, a former BEG professor and now president of North American Bank.

John Fusiello, president, was named Commerce Club Man of the Year. William Colson was vice-president; John S. Young, secretary; and Al Bernard, treasurer. Mr. Frank Devlin was moderator.

The Commerce Club this year is especially proud of the "Dean Graff Memorial Fund" instituted in memory of the late Fritz W. Graff, Dean Emeritus of BEG, and moderator of the Club. The "Fund" will provide a reading room and portrait in oil of the Dean for the future Business School Building.

Commerce Club Dance

The 1957-58 Commerce Club dance gave Carroll's "business men" and their guests a social evening, "away from the office." First off-campus affair of the season, the dance was held September 27 in the ballroom of the Tudor Arms Hotel.

Marty Conn and his orchestra served up danceable music for Carroll students and their ladies. Commerce Club President John Fuscillo was in charge of the dance. 250 couples attended.

The "Bunny Hop" is always a big favorite.

Alpha Kappa Psi

Highlights of the year for the Delta Mu chapter of Alpha Kappa Psi included a Thanksgiving food drive for needy families, a career conference for students at Carroll, and a three-day Regional conference at the University of Michigan.

Officers were Robert Nix, president; Al Buchta, vice-president; Dan Stegmaier, secretary; Al Robinson, treasurer; and Bill Geary, Master of Rituals. Dr. Arthur J. Noetzel, Dean of the School of Business, Economics, and Government, was advisor.

Mr. J. Patrick Rooney, Director of Public Relations, instructs AKP officers Al Buchta, Bob Nix, and Dan Stegmaier in the intricacies of effective publicity.

Jim Oakar, Mike Zuccaro, Don Podnar, and Joe Archer, AKP members, demonstrate a practical interest in Carroll's physical development.

ROW 3: A. Dixon, J. Belmonte, T. Peters, G. Tanski, W. Anderson, C. Vasco, W. Gill.

The Scientific Academy, in keeping with the object of the society, promoted the intellectual, scientific, and social activities of its members. The Academy obtained prominent guest speakers representing the various fields of science. Dr. Grabowski from the University of Pittsburgh spoke to the group concerning the many facets of embryology. Dr. Classin enlightened the members about the science of osteopathy. Field trips were also included on the Academy's program of the year. Medical institutions such as the Cleveland Clinic received the group's special attention.

Starting the year with a new moderator, the Rev. Philip Vogel, S.J., the club became one of the most active organizations on campus. William Anderson served as president.

Scabbard and Blade aimed to develop civilian understanding concerning the role of the Army in present day life. In addition, the organization of seventy-one upper-classmen, in conjunction with the Red Cross, sponsored two blood drives which increased John Carroll's blood bank by three hundred and forty-six pints.

Mixing pleasure with business, the Advanced Corps fraternal organization sponsored an initiation banquet for new members and several other parties. Serving as faculty moderator for the group was Major Stephen S. Murray.

Officers were Gene McGinty, Capt.; Don Santos, 1st Lt.; Bill Hinds, 2d Lt.; and Gary Wechter, 1st Sgt.

NDTA

At home on land, sea, or in the air may well be the motto of the National Defense Transportation Association. This year, besides their annual Thanksgiving excursion to the military installations in the New York area, including the United States Military Academy, the members of the group were also guests of the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics at the Lewis Flight Propulsion Laboratory in Cleveland on March 21.

Captain James Murphy, NDTA moderator, and Stan Glod, president, led the group which inspected one of the largest wind tunnels in the world.

To prove that they are at home on the sea, the group members viewed the port facilities of Cleveland aboard a Coast Guard cutter on April 11.

Patton, Pledge Master and Executive Secretary; and with the advice and encouragement of Major Robert W. Gentleman, moderator, the AUSA has grown from an organization of 25 members at the start of the semester to the largest single organization on campus.

The AUSA's first event of the school year was an initiation banquet for old and new members. At Thanksgiving time, the President and Moderator attended the national convention at Washington, D. C.

Highlighting the year's activities was a tour of the Port of New Orleans at Mardi Gras time, in which 60 Senior Cadet members participated.

Hillel Club

Rabbi Emmanuel Seidman, moderator, A. Waldman, R. Rosenblum, G. Silverberg, A. Arnold, D. Madorsky, W. Hyman, S. Reifman.

Proudly bearing the honor of being the only nationally-affiliated Jewish student organization on a Catholic university campus, the Hillel Club undertook a diversified program designed for members of the Jewish faith.

The comprehensive schedule, covering religious, social, cultural, and athletic activities, saw the group participate in the school intramural program, a series of cultural meetings and lectures, and several group parties.

Guided by Rabbi Emmanuel Seidman, moderator, David Madorsky led the group as president, while Gary Silverberg handled the club finances.

Current Events Club

N. Hogan, R. Mellert, H. Johnson, R. Glover, R. Kikta.

During the 1957-58 school year the Current Events Club examined and analyzed the domestic and foreign problems confronting the United States government.

The group discussed the "Right to Work Law", Federal Aid to Education, and the current recession. Dr. Belti Shah Gilani, visiting professor from India, gave a most enlightening talk on "India and the Modern World".

The Current Events Club was led by Bob Mellert, president; Neil Hogan, vice-president; and Tom Morton, secretary-treasurer. Dr. Edward Reilley was faculty advisor.

Model Railroad Club

Major Walter Hanselmann, moderator, T. Sands, T. Majhan, J. Ruiz, W. Charron, J. Mildenberg, R. Yerkey, C. Novak, T. Long.

The mission of the Model Railroad Club is the operation and maintenance of the Military Science Department's small scale model railroad and port display system. The club also provided an outlet for the model railroading talents of the members.

The club's many operations are guided by its moderator, Major Walter Hanselmann and its President, T. Sands.

MARS

From the Carroll radio station, K8WBF, located in the Military Science Building, the ham operators of JCU reach out across the United States, and even converse with radio fans in other lands.

Many hours were spent this year in the MARS room tracking the faint "beeps" of the newly-orbited satellites. The Military Affiliated Radio System had Captain A. A. Helker as its moderator, and Godfrey Anzic acted as president.

Intramural Managers

More than 800 students took part in this year's various intramural activities. The 1957-58 season, unprecedented in student participation and cooperation, was given incentive plus adequate facilities with the opening of the new Gymnasium.

In addition to wrestling, added this year, the sports slate open to any full-time student includes football, basketball, volleyball, table-tennis, badminton, softball, tennis, horseshoes, handball, and free-throw.

Climaxing this most successful year, Dick Laub in the 130 lb. wrestling class and Ed Reno in foul-shooting captured PAC championships.

The hard-working intramural committee was led by Jim Finnegan as director. He was assisted by Ron Jagels, John Ryan, John Curry, Ted Schmitz, Vic Herbert, Jim Dowling, and John Callinan. Mr. Herb Eisele was moderator.

Geneva	20

A valiant Blue Streak eleven went down fighting against the Covies in the opener of the 1957 football season. With three games under their belt, Geneva's offense bogged down in the second half as the Carroll defense found its place. The Streak offense moved under the steady guidance of senior Chuck St. John. The helmsman scored on a sneak from the two for the first Carroll score. Halfback Paul Burens tallied from the 13 to climax a 69-yard drive.

All-PAC end Jack Hyland looks as though he's about to pounce upon the prey already being brought down by All-PAC tackle Gerry Porter and another unidentifiable player.

A study of human emotions.

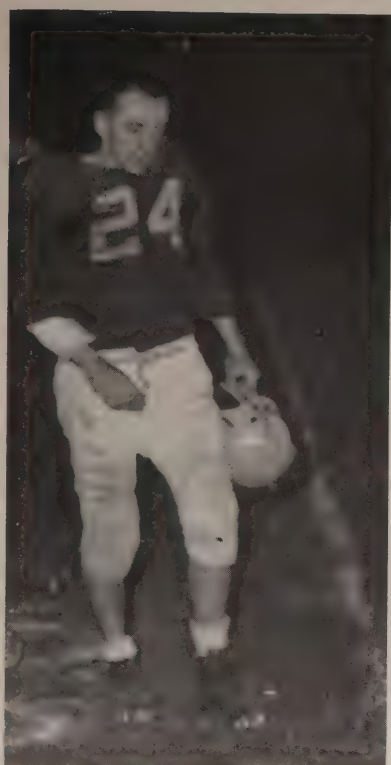

"Look at that man drive!" Carroll's Dave Nichting (44) seemingly exclaims.

Is there a doctor in the house?

This "head-hanging" by Bob Nix was a unique action during the Blue Streaks' highly successful season.

Coach Herb Eisele unleashed his vicious Streaks to wreck the homecoming celebrations of one of the all-time powers in the Mid-Ohio Conference. It was the brilliant Frank Walton's most successful appearance on the gridiron turf as the fleetfooted halfback gained 227 yards and scored three touchdowns. Crazylegs, as his fans know him, hauled in a Jerry Schweickert aerial for a 55-yard pass play and scored on two 5-yard end runs. All-PAC Tackle, Gerry Porter, shone with equal brilliance as the agile lineman kicked two extra points and recovered a blocked punt in the end zone. Schweickert tallied on a sneak from the two.

Case

The mighty Blue Streaks put forth their best offensive effort of the season as they whipped Case. Quarterback Jerry Schweickert connected with ends Bob Nix for 36 and Jack Hyland for three yards, and fullback Bill Marks for 21, as the Carroll varsity moved to an early and never-questioned lead. Walton started the scoring with a 2-yard plunge. Tackle Dan Kendzierski also got into the act as he raced 24 yards to paydirt with a stolen ball. Halfback Tony Federico added a TD to the rout. Tackle Gerry Porter converted four times.

Bone-crushing tackles like this exemplify why the Streaks were defeated in only one game this year.

ALL-PAC Quarterback Jerry Schweickert shows the form which ranked him high among the nation's best punters.

The coaching staff in a moment of anxiety.

This was the championship game. The Blue Streaks proved their worth as they copped the first league trophy the school has seen in 18 years. It was the defense which made the difference against a surprisingly strong Red Cat eleven. In the fourth period, with Carroll trailing 6-0, quarterback Jerry Schweickert blocked a Reserve punt. End Jack Hyland scooped up the ball and ran 18 yards for the tally. Schweickert converted for the extra point. With the hosts taking to the air and the homecoming crowd cheering them on, injured Jim Gauntner picked off a deflected pass and lumbered 45 yards to paydirt. Schweickert again converted.

Clarion

A Carroll back, unknown because of the mud-covered number upon his jersey, follows his interference very wisely for a sizeable gain against Clarion.

Carroll	6

It was a cold, snowy, windy day in Cleveland as the Streaks entertained their Pennsylvania visitors in the second home game of the season. The turf was soggy and slippery. The offense had a difficult time starting, but when it did, the talents of sophomore Jack Greene, subbing for the injured Frank Walton, were given their deserved display. The little halfback was a mainstay on offense. He was equally effective on defense. But the glory of scoring the only points the handful of spectators saw tallied went to behemoth Bill Marks who scored on an end run late in the fourth period.

The Streaks proved themselves to be the better mudders in this cold and wet contest against Clarion, 6-0.

Pity the poor Bethany player who looks a bit upset after being hit by Gerry Porter and Jerry Schweickert.

Jack Hyland (28) and Bob Biter (48) look the situation over to make sure all is under control.

Wayne and Bethany

With sophomore Jerry Schweickert at the helm, former PAC champs, Wayne State's Tartars fell before a Homecoming crowd at Hosford field. Schweickert's fabulous talents as a passer were put on exhibition beginning with a 39-yard pass to Paul Burens for the first Carroll score. Fullback Bill Marks galloped 23 yards to paydirt for the second tally. Schweickert kicked the extra point. Halfback Frank Walton recovered a fumbled punt in the end zone to finish the scoring.

Junior Frank Walton displays the form that made him the team's leading ground gainer.

Carroll's sixth consecutive triumph came against a surprisingly tough and experienced Bethany eleven. Although completely dominating the game during the first half, the Streaks were unable to score and were engaged in a scoreless tie at intermission. Quarterback Jerry Schweickert scored in the second half on a one-yard plunge and halfback Jack Greene ran for nine in the final stanza.

Freshman Football

The Frosh show their defensive strength by holding back a Case onslaught.

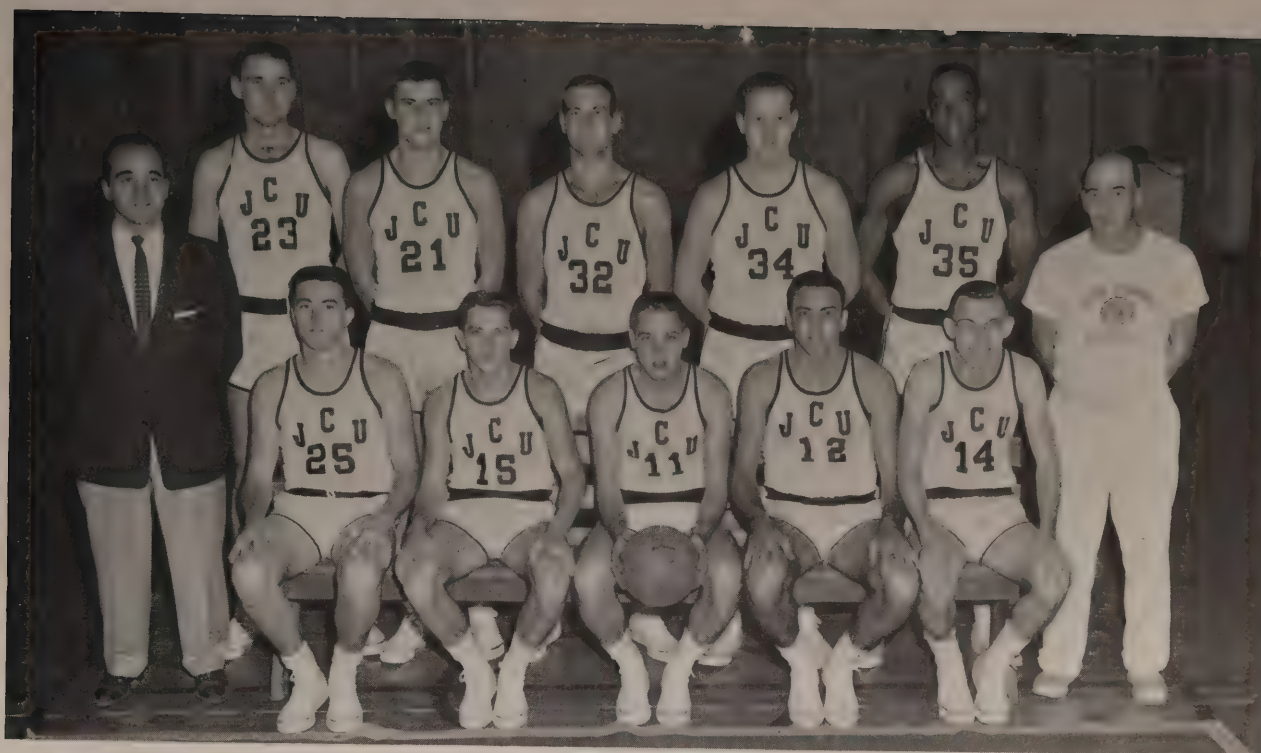

Coach Carl Torch.

Another year, another Presidents' Athletic Conference championship for Coach Carl Torch and his freshman grid-ders. The yearlings downed all three of their opponents to finish with a perfect record.

The Frosh opened the season with a one-sided triumph over Case's plebes, 31-0. The outstanding player for the afternoon was quarterback Don Lewis. Despite the fact that he had never played in organized football before, the helmsman passed for three touchdowns and carried for an extra point.

Wayne State's Tartars hosted the freshman squad as the Streaklets downed their Detroit foes, 19-0. Lewis once again figured in the scoring as he passed to Maximovich for a TD. Kobulinski tallied twice, as he intercepted a Tartar pass and scampered 20 yards for the score. The halfback also carried a Lewis aerial to paydirt.

The yearlings clinched their claim to the throne in a hard-fought contest against the Western Reserve Red Kittens, 14-12.

Carroll	76
Xavier	83

With their spark of desire fanned to a red-hot fury, the Streaks battled a highly-touted NIT Champion Xavier five to a standstill in the first half as Carroll led, 42-41. The Muskies fought back to retain their top ten rating and the Blue and Gold fell, 86-73. The phenomenal Dick Krebs led the scoring with a sizzling 30-point effort, while Captain John Stavole contributed 18 to the cause.

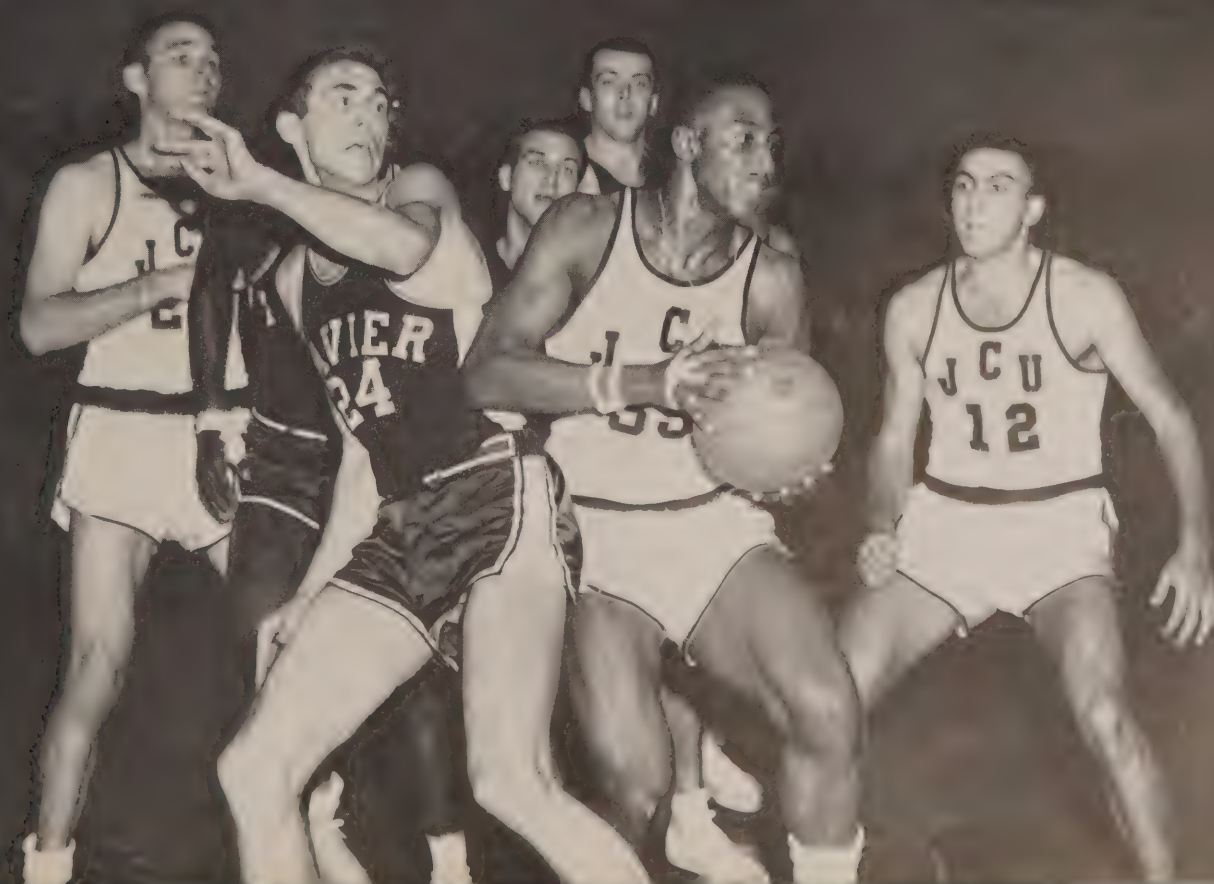

Carroll	54
Toledo	89

With the dynamic duo, Dick Krebs and John Stavole, bottled up throughout the game, the Streaks could do little against the Rockets. Krebs once again led the scoring with 13 points, as sophomore Jim Keim caged 12.

Missing the century mark by a slight two points, the Streaks could do no wrong against a hapless Red Cat five. Playing a man-to-man defense during the first half, the Streaks chalked up 13 points before Reserve could break the scoring ice. Forward Gary Furin played a magnificent game as he tallied 20 points to lead the scoring. All five of the Carroll starters broke into double figures.

Yes, John, that's on you!

Carroll	92
W&J	71

With a phenomenal 42 points in the final ten minutes of play, the Streaks downed a fighting W&J quintet, 92-71. Dick Krebs playing a magnificent floor game directed the attack and poured in 31 points for his season high. Gary Furin equalled his best output thus far with a 20-point performance.

Gary Furin shows what to do when you can't shoot over him.

Carroll	95
Bethany	105

Playing their last game prior to the Christmas Holidays, the Streaks fell to the Bisons in a contest marked by a mediocre second half and erratic shooting on the part of the Carroll quintet. The team captain, John Stavole, led the Streaks with a 26 point performance.

Carroll	86
Case	74

Gaining first place in the PAC with a 2-0 mark, the Streaks downed a fighting Case five, 86-74, at Case. Leading only by two points, 40-38, at the end of the half, the Carroll quintet regained its form and pulled away strong at the finish. John Stavole led the team with 19 points, as Dick Krebs contributed 16.

Carroll 72
Wayne 47

With the visitors' defense centering on Dick Krebs and limiting the guard to 12 points, the Carroll squad poured in the tallies from other fronts, as they took command in the PAC basketball race. John Stavole, putting on one of his usually fine performances, scored 30 points. Forward Gary Furin, fast proving himself to be one of the keys to Carroll success, tallied 22.

Carroll 107
Defiance 104

Returning to action after the mid-term exams, the Streaks defeated Defiance in a double overtime thriller, 107-104. The game was tied at the end of regulation play, 81-81. The first overtime period ended in a 91-91 deadlock. Two free throws by Dick Krebs in the final stanza put Carroll ahead, 97-95. They never trailed again.

That's one way by which to keep an opponent from scoring.

Carroll 68
St. Francis 95

The Streaks started well in this contest against the NIT contenders but faded in the final half. It was a contest of the boards, and the taller St. Francis quint won. Dick Krebs led the scoring for both squads with a 22-point outburst. John Stavole followed with 14 markers.

Carroll 106
Bethany 71

Roaring back to avenge a previous defeat, the Streaks completely outclassed the Bisons and topped Bethany in every department. A 22-point outburst in the first half, which saw Bethany go scoreless as the Streaks poured it on, gave the home team a comfortable 50-26 halftime lead and eventually another victory.

Carroll 93

In playing another tough, non-league opponent, the Streaks came close to upsetting the highly-favored Penguins, but a lack of depth proved fatal in the 99-93 loss. Sophomore John Slosar played his best game to date, but the bulk of the scoring once again rested on the shoulders of John Stavole and Dick Krebs.

Carroll 70
Kent 72

The Streaks played host to a tall and slightly-favored Kent squad and almost humbled the Golden Flashes. Dick Krebs once again led the action with 25 tallies. The agile guard netted 17 of his markers in the second half rally which caught up with the Flashes, but the Streaks could not sustain the drive long enough to garner a victory.

An example of why Gary Furin led the team in rebounding.

Carroll 67
Reserve 50

The Blue Streaks clinched the PAC title in this one as the Red Cats' stalling tactics backfired. With a 29-19 halftime score Carroll pulled ahead as the Cats began to race to score. Dick Krebs and John Stavole, the dynamic backcourt pair, led the scoring with 19 and 17 points. Gary Furin chipped in with 13.

Carroll 84
Loyola 87

The season began with a heartbreaker and it ended on the same note. With Jim Kenealy pouring in 22 points in the finest performance of his cage career, the Streaks battled a strong Rambler five but came out at the wrong end of a closely contested game. John Slosar, who might well turn out to be the answer to Carroll's tall man problem, netted 20 markers as the Streaks took control of the boards.

Junior Dick Krebs, playing a magnificent floor game, contributed 22 points to the cause.

Freshman Basketball

The Carroll yearlings closed their season with a PAC championship and a 6-2 record. The Frosh defeated every one of the league foes, but dropped two contests to independent rivals.

Case Tech was the big threat this year, but the plebes unhorsed the Rough Riders in both encounters. In the first game the Frosh came out on top, 73-65. Don Messing, backcourt threat, was high man for the Streaklets with 19 markers. In the second encounter the plebes squeaked by the Riders, 68-65. Norm Baracz, voted most valuable player by the Frosh squad, clinched the game with a layup with 45 seconds remaining in the game.

The Red Cats of Western Reserve also fell twice. The yearlings initiated a successful PAC season at the expense of the Cats, 90-64. Baracz was the sparkplug as he poured in 31 points to pace both teams. The second time around, the inevitable happened as the Streaklets clinched first place in the league with an 81-68 victory. Baracz and Messing were the big men for the night once again as they poured in 25 and 23 points, respectively.

The Frosh fared equally well against Wayne as they downed the Tartars, 81-53, and 93-67.

In the first game Messing led the way with 22 points. Dick Ruprich followed with 17. When the two teams met again the two-man scoring machine of Baracz and Messing annihilated the Tartars with 31 and 30 points, respectively.

Toledo spoiled the yearlings' debut, 75-66, for the first independent loss. Messing scored 30; Jim Flaherty, one of the finer backcourt men in the area, kept the Streaklets close in his role as playmaker. A fabulous Kent frosh squad cleaned up on the plebes, 105-60. Baracz and Flaherty each had 19 points.

Acknowledgements

The publication of an annual such as the Carillon, involving the complexities of art, photography, engraving, printing, advertising, sales, and distribution, demands the arduous labors and uncounted hours contributed by the staff. It requires, in addition, the advice, aid, and service of many persons off-campus. In a very special way our thanks are due to:

- FRANK DUGAN, the Jean Sardou Studio
- RAY MILETI, The Cleveland Engraving Company
- JOSEPH FOGG, Judson Printing Company
- RALPH BENZ, the S. K. Smith Company
- FRANCES HECKER, Little King Bindery Company

The work has been hard, the hours long; nevertheless we have derived satisfaction and pleasure from the work of composing a year's history of the University and of presenting it to you, the reader, for your enjoyment.

BARTLY A. REILLY, Editor-in-Chief
JOHN T. REALI, Business Manager

The 1958 Carillon

has been our most favored year book. Judson service is complete and thorough. 88 years of successful experience and continued growth have proven our methods to be effective. The Judson organization is capable and waiting to serve you in all of your printing requirements.

Something troubling you fella?

You say you started a car pool to beat the high cost of parking? . . . and those ten other guys piling in at the same time broke the springs in your car? . . . and the fellow next to the right rear window turns out to be from Case? . . . and he wouldn't pay his share? . . . and the parking lot gate was stuck? . . . and nobody had a quarter? . . . and some wise guy said, "Drive on through", and now you've got a convertible? . . . and your liability insurance ran out the previous day? . . . and you bought another car and the Cavaliers co-signed for it because you're 8 feet 3½, but you didn't tell them that Mom won't let you play basketball? . . . and you spent your car pool money on a $10 windshield parking sticker, and somebody stole your windshield? . . . is that what's concerning you bunkie . . . well, then

HOLD YOUR HEAD UP HIGH! And take a walk 'cross the lawn . . . and Chug-a-lug, chug-a-lug another fish bowl of that STANDARD BEER!

What's that, sonny?

You say you're new on the campus and some wiseacre told you to move your gear into Rodman, and before you discovered your error you were teaching trig and sleeping through faculty meetings? . . . and you marched your drill squad into the squash court and couldn't get them out? . . . and you'd have been a junior this year, but it took so long to register for classes that time ran out? . . . and those rock-n-roll records you played in the dorm wrecked the seismograph? . . . and you dropped your buttered popcorn in the Fairmount Theatre lobby? . . . and your shirts aren't back from the laundry yet? . . . well, then

THROW YOUR HAT IN THE AIR! And NEVER give up—no NEVER give up that can of STANDARD BEER!

Hi, there, curly . . .

You say you couldn't get a phone call out because the lines were busy . . . and the dorm burned down . . . and you couldn't eat in the cafeteria because you lost your meal ticket? . . . and you pawned your Elvis Presley Teddy Bear to eat at the Campus Drug, and they were out of spaghetti? . . . and you named the dorm mascot Rin-Tin-Tin because he kept hanging around Ft. Apache, and the police arrested him because he wasn't a dog? . . . and they turned down your application for Student Nursing at St. John's? . . . and they want you to go out for football, but you're chicken because you've got rose fever—and besides that 28's a nice even number? . . . and you just smoked your last cigarette and you're fresh out of slugs? . . . and your tattoo washed off in the shower . . . and the candy machines are out of candy? . . . and somebody broke into your foot locker and stole your foot collection? . . . and your shirts still didn't come back from the laundry? . . . is that what keeps waking you up out of that double-bunk at night, chum? . . . well,

PUT A SMILE ON YOUR FACE, and walk through the high grass, and LIVE IT UP with a big, big bottle of that delicious STANDARD BEER!

BEST BEER IN ANY CASE!
